Current Chapter President, Chad Pedigo touts, “The Naperville Jaycees have proudly served and supported our community for more than 60 years and we are honored to continue that legacy in 2022. Hosting the Last Fling is the largest of our annual volunteer-run programs and our members take great pride in the fun and philanthropy it provides each year.” He goes on to say, “The successful return of the Last Fling in 2021 confirmed how resilient our community is; we are currently recruiting leaders to help us make the 2022 Last Fling an even bigger success!”

As their largest yearly event, the Naperville Jaycees rely upon monetary and physical support from community partners and in-person volunteers.
